HONORABLE GERI D. PALAST, Of Counsel to Milberg Weiss Bershad & Schulman, is a Root-Tilden Public Service Law Scholar from New York University School of Law, and an honors graduate of Stanford University. Ms. Palast directs the Firm's program reaching out to institutional investors in areas of litigation, policy and public affairs. Formerly, she was the founder and executive director of the Justice at Stake Campaign, a national organization working to ensure fair and impartial courts. From 1993-2000, she was confirmed by the U.S. Senate to serve as Assistant Secretary of Labor for Congressional and Intergovernmental Affairs during President Clinton's two terms under Labor Secretaries Robert Reich and Alexis Herman. She also served on the President's Interagency Council on Women, where she chaired the Committee on Women in the Global Economy. The Committee monitored U.S. compliance with the Beijing Platform for Women. She was a member of the U.S. delegation to Women 2000 at the United Nations. Her focus was the impact of globalization on women.

Prior to joining the Clinton Administration, Ms. Palast was the Political and Legislative Director of Service Employees International Union, 1981-1993. In 1979, she established and ran the Washington office of the National Employment Law Project, a program of the Legal Services Corporation. Earlier in her career, she worked for the National Treasury Employees Union and AFSCME (American Federation of State County and Municipal Employees).

Throughout her career, Ms. Palast has organized and directed numerous broad-based national and grassroots legislative and issue campaigns. She founded and co-chaired the bipartisan coalition that was responsible for enacting the landmark Family and Medical Leave Act. As Assistant Secretary, she was a leader in the successful policy and legislative efforts to enact the minimum wage increase, the Workforce Investment Act—the overhaul of the nation's employment and training system, Welfare to Work, School to Work, and the historic congressional ratification of the International Labor Organization (ILO) international convention against abusive child labor. She worked on numerous pension reform legislative and regulatory matters. She has also been a strategic adviser to many electoral campaigns.

Ms. Palast has served on numerous boards and advisory committees. She has also lectured at colleges and universities. Ms. Palast is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia, and she is an inactive member of the California State Bar.

DEBORAH M. STURMAN received a Prix d'Excellence from the Royal Brussels Conservatory and a J.D. degree from the University of California at Los Angeles School of Law.

Ms. Sturman conceived of, and, together with senior partner Melvyn Weiss, filed the first suits in United States courts on behalf of Holocaust-era slave labor victims, leading to recoveries of approximately $7 billion. She has been profiled in both The Wall Street Journal and Financial Times for her innovative lawyering and regularly appears as a legal commentator in the German, Dutch, French, Swiss and Belgian media as well as on numerous international and national Continuing Legal Education panels for complex and international litigation.

Since the early 1990's, Ms. Sturman has represented Holocaust survivors and their heirs seeking restitution of real property in the former East Germany "Aryanized" during World War II, and assisted European investors in connection with their United States investments.
